EDITOR DANA IS DEAD

Recent Hot Weather Hastened His End.

LIVER TROUBLE PRINCIPAL CAUSE.

The Great Journalist Took Sick Suddenly Early In June—Went to His Home on Long Island and Never Saw New York Again.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Charles A. Dana, editor of the New York Sun, has died at his home in Glen Cove, L. I. His family and physicians were at his bedside when the end came. His condition had been such for several months that the members of his family had kept themselves in readiness to go to his bedside at any moment. On Saturday morning he had a relapse and it was apparent that his recovery was impossible. Several times, however, he rallied, but towards night he began to sink. During the night there were feeble rallies, but they did not last long. Sunday morning it was seen that the end was but a few hours off, and his attendants remained almost constantly at his bedside. The end came quietly Sunday afternoon.

CHARLES A. DANA.

The extreme heat of Saturday and Friday had much to do with hastening the end. On Friday he showed signs of distress and everything possible was done to relieve him. He had been weakened by his long illness and during the summer was several times thought to be on the verge of a collapse, but each time he rallied. He did not improve much with the coming cooler weather, and the sinking spells became more frequent.

On Friday, Mr. Dana was able to take only the lightest nourishment, and this condition continued. Paul Dana and his sisters, Mrs. Draper, Mrs. Underhill, and Mrs. Branan, were at his home on Saturday morning, and were warned to remain there. They were at the bedside when death came.

The cause of Mr. Dana's death was cirrhosis of the liver. On June 9, he was at his office apparently strong and healthy. The next day he was taken ill, and he never afterward visited New York. He was 78 years old.

Charles A. Dana was born at Hinsdale, N. Y., Aug. 8, 1819. He attended Harvard college, but did not graduate, owing to failing eyesight. He clerked for an uncle in a store in Buffalo for a time, but later joined the socialist community called Brook Farm, in Massachusetts. He then went to Europe, where he wrote letters to the New York Tribune in 1848.

Soon afterward he became managing editor. In 1861 he became assistant secretary of war. After the war he became editor of the Chicago Republican. In 1868 he went to New York as editor of the Sun, and was with that paper up to his death, controlling a majority of the stock. His salary was $50,000 a year, besides his dividends.

Politically, the attitude of The Sun has been such as to make one almost dizzy in following its various changes. Republican at the outset of Mr. Dana's connection with it, The Sun in 1872 supported Horace Greeley. Grant was Greeley's opponent, and during the war the general had refused to accept some suggestion offered by Dana, then assistant secretary of war. This rankled in Dana's mind, and in the columns of The Sun he poured forth the vials of his hatred and wrath. Greeley was defeated, but The Sun, having espoused the Democratic side on the national issue, continued the same policy in local matters and clung to Tammany Hall and Boss Tweed and championed their cause.

The Sun supported Seymour and Tilden, but Hancock met with nothing better than sneers in its all columns.

In 1884 the paper supported Ben Butler on the Greenback ticket. It fought Cleveland and Bryan vigorously and lately has been attacking Tammany.

In explanation of Mr. Dana's persistent attacks on Cleveland it is said that at one time when in office Mr. Cleveland refused to appoint one of the editor's relatives to a political position with the remark "Who is Dana, anyway?" This reached Dana's ear, and, true to his nature never to forgive or forget, he has used his columns to avenge the sneer.

The above but illustrates a peculiar trait of the man.

SHALLENBERGER'S REPORT.

Interesting Figures Regarding Transportation of Mail Matter.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The annual report of W. S. Shallenberger, second assistant postmaster general, gives an interesting review of the principal developments in the entire postal transportation service of the United States and connecting foreign mails. It shows an aggregate of appropriations for this large part of the postal service for the current year of $51,041,238; the probable deficiency is $500,000, making the estimated expenditures this year $51,541,238.

The summary of all classes of service in operation June 30 last, follows:

Number of routes, 32,491; length of routes, 470,032 miles; annual rate of expenditures, $19,862,074; number of miles traveled per annum, 420,850,479; rate of cost per mile traveled, 11.84 cents; rate of cost per mile of length, $106.08; average number of trips per week, 8.60. For star mail service, the estimate for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1899, is $5,495,000. Last year there was an increase of 5,330,749 miles of travel in star service, so essential to rural districts.

The estimates for the fiscal year 1899 includes steam boat service, $470,000; mail messenger service, $950,000; "transportation by pneumatic tubes or other similar devices, by purchase or otherwise," $225,000, and wagon service, $725,000.

The amount reported withheld from the Pacific railroads on account of transportation is $1,312,023; estimate for railroad transportation for fiscal year 1899 is $10,350,000. The estimate for electric and cable car service is $375,000 and 139 applications for establishment of new service of this character are on file.

As to foreign mails, the report makes an estimate of $1,901,260 for transportation and $42,000 for balances due foreign countries. The aggregate cost of this service was $2,049,199, including $1,066,276 for trans-Atlantic and $179,132 for trans-Pacific service.

The report takes an important position as to newspaper mail, and a plan to make the profits on short hauls offset the long runs.

General Shallenberger further says: "I am convinced that the department can and should carry the great bulk of newspaper matter that has been for years withheld from the mails and sent in baggage cars and special express trains."

SKIPPED FOR CUBA.

Revenue Cutter Fails to Run Down a Swift Filibustering Schooner.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The revenue cutter Chandler, having on board United States Marshal McCarthy in charge of a dozen deputy marshals and three Pinkerton detectives, spent nearly four hours cruising about the harbor in search of a schooner which, it was said, had sailed for Cuba with a filibustering party. The schooner which the marshal was in quest of was the Silver Heel of Bangor, Me. She is of 184 tonnage and has a reputation of being very swift and seaworthy.

It has been reported that the Silver Heel was boarded early Saturday evening by about 20 men who were apparently equipped for an extended voyage. A number of packages had been loaded on the schooner which was then towed from the foot of Market street, East river, into midstream, by the tug P. H. Wise, owned by Moren Brothers of this city. Whether the schooner went up or down stream the persons who furnished the information to the federal authorities could not say. They failed to find the vessel.

AUTONOMY FAILS.

Spanish Paper Announces Failure of Cuban Negotiations.

MADRID, Oct. 18.—El Imparcial says that the negotiations between the government and the chiefs of the Cuban autonomist party have not produced the expected results.

BLEW OFF HIS HEAD

The Tragic End of a Toronto Hungarian.

CAUSE OF THE DEED NOT GIVEN

The Man Arose This Morning After the Family Had Left the House, and Taking Up a Shotgun Used It—Was Well Known Down the River.

TORONTO, Oct. 18.—[Special]—Robert Rankle lies dead in the little house occupied by his sister near the Great Western plant, the top of his head having been blown off this morning by a shotgun in his own hands.

Rankle came to this country eight years ago from Hungary, and six years ago came to Toronto. He was employed at the Great Western, but was well known in the sewer pipe district. He was unmarried, and lived with his sister.

At 6:30 o'clock this morning, when he was the sole occupant of the house, he arose, dressed himself, and taking up a loaded shotgun, pulled the trigger. The charge blew away the top of his head.

No cause is assigned for the deed, but it is stated that Rankle had been drinking. He was 23 years old.

SPOKE OUT IN MEETIN'.

Rev. Huston Pays His Attention to Illegal Liquor Selling.

Rev. J. M. Huston, D. D., in his address of Sunday morning, made use of the following respecting the saloons of East Liverpool:

"When I pass certain saloons on Sunday evenings and find men therein, in absolute defiance of law; when I stumble over the prostrate bodies of drunken men upon our pavements, as has been my own experience, I cannot refrain from declaring, in the words of my text, 'who shall declare the wickedness of his generation.'"

FLEEING FROM STARVATION.

Many Likely to Perish Trying to Leave the Klondike.

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 18.—The steamer Danube has arrived, ten days from St. Michaels. She brought 82 passengers, most of them men who failed to reach the mines by the all-water route. Some got as far as Fort Yukon and had to turn back. There are 12 miners from Circle city who bring about $72,000 in gold dust. Most of them have been working around Circle city, but a few are interested in the Klondike claims. A lot of provisions are at Fort Yukon, but it feared that if there is a rush from Dawson it will cause a shortage further down the river. It is predicted that many men will perish in the attempt to escape from starvation by coming down the river.

The steamer P. B. Weare, after being on a sandbar two days, got off and arrived at St. Michaels September 20. She started up again with a load of freight but it is feared she will never get up the river. The steamer Alice arrived at St. Michaels September 24, with 120 miners and after starting up again on the 27th, ran aground at the mouth of the river. Steamer Mare Island and Merwin tried to get up but failed. The Merwin and Alice at last accounts were on a bar and freezing up.

H. B. Tucker, correspondent of the Associated Press of Troy, N. Y., died of exhaustion on the trail a few miles from Rampart City. He and a friend started out at night with little food to locate claims on Hoosier creek. They spent two days and nights in the woods, they then turned back. Tucker fell from exhaustion. His friend went for assistance, but when it arrived Tucker was dead.

It's a Good Town.

F. M. Dunn, traveling correspondent for Power, a New York trade paper, was here today on business.

He never stopped in Liverpool before, and while here did five times as much business as he had anticipated. He looks upon East Liverpool as one of the best towns for its population in the country.

Acquitted of Train Robbery.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 18.—John F. Kennedy, who has been on trial in the criminal court for the past week charged with being the leader of the Chicago and Alton passenger train robbery at Blue Cut, in December last, has been acquitted.

A LOT OF MACHINERY

Is Causing No End of Trouble For A. J. Boyce.

A REQUISITION WAS ISSUED

He Will Go to Beaver County and Fight the Charges if He Finds the Papers Are Regular—The Material Was Purchased and Another Man Claimed It.

Some time ago A. J. Boyce saw a boiler and engine rusting by the roadside near Monaca, Pa., and the matter has developed until it has found its way into court.

Mr. Boyce instituted a search for the owner and was sent to a Beaver man who sold him the material. It was brought here, and set up in Mr. Boyce's foundry in Walnut street. Later W. L. Harvey came here and claimed the outfit. Mr. Boyce explained that it had been repaired and was being used, and could not at that time be moved. Suit was instituted, and Harvey got judgment for $380. The verdict stands today. Soon afterward Mr. Boyce was compelled to make an assignment.

Then another course was taken as Harvey was determined to even matters. Charges were preferred against Mr. Boyce, and Sheriff Graham came here last week with the papers. Mr. Boyce refused to go to Beaver county, and the sheriff went to Columbus, where the requisition was secured. Upon returning here he was met by Sheriff Gill, and Saturday afternoon they called on Mr. Boyce. He was out of town, having gone away on business. There the matter rests.

Mr. Boyce's friends say that if the papers are regular he will, of course, go to Beaver county, give bond and fight the case. He is expected home this week.

BURNED MANY ACRES.

Destructive Forest Fires in St. Clair Township.

Hunters last Saturday fired the woods on the farms of D. J. Smith and John Hickman in St. Clair township, and much damage was the result. Fifteen acres were burned over, and only the united force of a large party of farmers prevented the fire from spreading to Mr. Smith's stables and residence. A large amount of fence was also destroyed. Farmers living in that part of the county have decided to cause the arrest of every man who hunts in that vicinity.

The West Virginia hills were a blaze of fire, last night, and hundreds of people in the city witnessed the beautiful sight. The fire spread rapidly, and blazed to the top of the hill, attracting a great deal of attention.

DRANK ALCOHOL,

And Now Robert Allison Is In His Grave.

Robert Allison, who lives near Asbury chapel, over the river, purchased a bottle of alcohol in Wellsville last Friday and went home. Saturday he placed it on the mantle beside a bottle of wood alcohol. When he wanted a drink a little later he secured the wrong bottle. From this he drank, and, going into the yard, laid down. Afterward when a member of his family approached him he was found to be dead. He leaves a wife and one child.

Allison was better known as "Hoop-pole Bill Allison," and had a wide acquaintance in this city and surrounding country.

ACCEPTED THE SYSTEM.

The Infirmary's Sewerage Is Now All Right.

LISBON, Oct. 18.—[Special.]—S. M. Watkins, a Cincinnati contractor, in company with the commissioners, inspected the sewerage system at the infirmary. It was put in operation, found to be satisfactory and accepted at the contract price, $2,900.

E. D. Marshall, of Liverpool, today sued James Darragh, asking $1,300 on three notes. The payment is secured by mortgages on lot 494 in Liverpool.

A marriage license was issued to W. H. Ormesbee and Mary Whitacre, Lisbon.

An Injury.

Paul Shaw, while at work Saturday afternoon in Patterson's foundry, caught the forefinger of his left hand on a lathe and badly injured it.

Destructive Forest Fires in St. Clair Township.

Hunters last Saturday fired the woods on the farms of D. J. Smith and John Hickman in St. Clair township, and much damage was the result. Fifteen acres were burned over, and only the united force of a large party of farmers prevented the fire from spreading to Mr. Smith's stables and residence. A large amount of fence was also destroyed. Farmers living in that part of the county have decided to cause the arrest of every man who hunts in that vicinity.

The West Virginia hills were a blaze of fire, last night, and hundreds of people in the city witnessed the beautiful sight. The fire spread rapidly, and blazed to the top of the hill, attracting a great deal of attention.

DRANK ALCOHOL,

And Now Robert Allison Is In His Grave.

Robert Allison, who lives near Asbury chapel, over the river, purchased a bottle of alcohol in Wellsville last Friday and went home. Saturday he placed it on the mantle beside a bottle of wood alcohol. When he wanted a drink a little later he secured the wrong bottle. From this he drank, and, going into the yard, laid down. Afterward when a member of his family approached him he was found to be dead. He leaves a wife and one child.

Allison was better known as "Hoop-pole Bill Allison," and had a wide acquaintance in this city and surrounding country.

ACCEPTED THE SYSTEM.

The Infirmary's Sewerage Is Now All Right.

LISBON, Oct. 18.—[Special.]—S. M. Watkins, a Cincinnati contractor, in company with the commissioners, inspected the sewerage system at the infirmary. It was put in operation, found to be satisfactory and accepted, at the contract price, $2,900.

E. D. Marshall, of Liverpool, today sued James Darragh, asking $1,300 on three notes. The payment is secured by mortgages on lot 494 in Liverpool.

A marriage license was issued to W. H. Ormesbee and Mary Whitacre, Lisbon.

An Injury.

Paul Shaw, while at work Saturday afternoon in Patterson's foundry, caught the forefinger of his left hand on a lathe and badly injured it.

A KLONDIKE MAGNATE.

Thos. Lippy and Wife Return to Kinsman, O.

THEY BROUGHT BACK $67,000.

A Claim Worth $1,000,000 Left by Mr. Lippy, Guarded by Five Men—Will Return to It in the Spring—Advice to Prospective Goldseekers.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Lippy, of Kinsman, O., a few miles north of here, have returned from a successful trip to the Klondike gold fields, to which place they went in April, 1896. Mr. Lippy was seen at his home by a newspaper representative and affirmed the report that he had cashed in $67,000 worth of gold, and had left a claim there worth $1,000,000.

Mr. Lippy said that he left five men to guard his claim, and that he and his wife will return to it in March and remain through the "clean-up," when they will again return to civilization. They made the journey back on foot and by sleds and boats until they reached the Yukon river, when they took a boat to Seattle by way of the Bering sea. Mr. Lippy advises all not to attempt to make the trip before spring sets in.

Mr. Lippy said: "My wife was the first white woman to set foot in the Bonanza or Eldorado creek valleys. We went up on a moose trail and got a man to help me cut logs and build a cabin, while the mercury, registered 70 degrees below zero. I sank a shaft 19 feet before I found any pay dirt. I would put in a fire, and after each fire shovel out what earth had been thawed loose. At a depth of 19 feet I found a vein of pay dirt four and one-half feet thick, which averaged $2.54 worth of gold to the shovelful. I made an excavation 60 feet wide around the bottom of the shaft, and had nothing but pay dirt out when I came to clean up in the spring."

Mr. Lippy was asked if he was not afraid of being robbed while he was away and said: "No. There are only two ways of getting out of that country—one up the river and the other down the river, and a person leaving must take along enough provisions to last at least two months, so that it would be folly for one to carry off what he could in gold with starvation staring him in the face. Up to the time I left there had been no thieving at all. Certain punishment also awaits the man who wrongs another. It is not unusual for men to go away from their cabins leaving them unlocked, containing sacks full of gold on shelves, on window sills, or in other convenient places. I know of no instance where gold so left was molested."

THE DEAD NUMBER THREE.

All the Injured in Cincinnati Theater Disaster Not Known.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 18.—The list of injured owing to the falling of the dome in Robinson's Opera House, is probably as complete as it ever will be. Scores of injured people beyond doubt reached home and have kept the fact of their injuries concealed. The dead are Mrs. George Kleeman and Isaac Neighbors. The latter was identified by his wife.

The seriously injured are: Pearl Hall, scalp wounds, right arm broken, is delirious; Mary Haas, both legs broken, left ankle crushed; Kate White, Price Hill, right arm broken and nervous shock; A. G. Weiss, internal injuries; Eury Scudder, Covington, Ky., jaw broken and severe shock. All of the above are at the City hospital, and all except Kate White are reported in a dangerous condition. Fifty-six others were more or less injured and cared for at the hospital.

Architects agree that the accident was caused by the trusses decaying that held the dome.

Mrs. Kate White, one of the injured, has died. Two others of the injured are in a critical condition, but with hopes of pulling through.

SHOT WHILE HUNTING.

A Cleveland Boy Dies From Wounds Received Accidentally.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 18.—Warren Reynolds, aged 18, the son of Iri Reynolds, treasurer of the Wade Park Banking company, and a sophomore at Case school of applied sciences, has been shot while hunting, and died later. He was with Leslie Stair and William McClure, two fellow students, duck shooting on a marsh several miles east of the city. Stair attempted to change the guns from one side of the boat to the other, when one of them was discharged, the load of shot tearing off one of Reynolds' hands and striking him in the abdomen.

The boys tried to summon help, but finally carried their companion a mile on a plank. It was four hours before they could get a surgeon, and by that time it was impossible to save the young man's life. Stair and McClure are so badly prostrated by the accident that they are under the care of physicians.

A Mining Camp Destroyed.

AUBURN, Cal., Oct. 18.—The town of Iowa Hill, a mining camp of about 500 inhabitants, has been completely destroyed by fire. Two men were burned to death and several others injured.

A Prisoner Swallows Morphine.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 18.—Henry Tindal, who was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment, swallowed about 20 grains of morphine, preferring death, he said, to going to the penitentiary.

The Rovers Won and So Did the Monarchs.

OUR OPPONENTS DIDN'T SCORE

The Standards of Allegheny and the Athletes of Wellsville Were at No Time in the Game, Liverpool's Boys Outplaying Them at Every Point.

The association football game Saturday afternoon at West End park, between the Allegheny Standards and Rovers, was won by the home team, 2 to 0.

The game was delayed 15 minutes owing to the absence of Paddy Hernan, and Joe Stanway took his place at center forward, and Chris Horton was placed in goal. Mayor Gilbert kicked off, and after 15 minutes rapid play Burbick kicked the ball to the Standards' goal. It was kicked out by their goal keeper, but Eardly met it and headed it through. Only once did the Standards get near the Rovers' goal, and the ball was put through on an off side play.

In the second half the ball was sent in the Rovers' territory, but was returned by a well directed kick by Pope, and Hodgkinson and Jones carried it down the field, Hodgkinson kicking goal.

The Rovers played a very fast game, and were clearly the superiors of their opponents. The game was a clean contest, with the exception of some rough work by Brown.

The Monarchs at Wellsville Saturday afternoon easily defeated the Wellsville team by a score of 10 to 0.

The game was too one-sided to be interesting, and was marked by incessant kicking on the part of the Wellsville players. At no time in the game did Wellsville have the ball in the Monarchs' territory, and they were held with the greatest of ease by their more scientific opponents, only having the ball in their possession four times. The first touchdown was made by Liverpool 10 minutes after play was called, Herbert going through the left tackle. McCurran kicked goal. In the second half D. McCurran made a 35 yard run around the right end for a touchdown, but failed to kick goal. The game was well umpired by Will L. Taylor.

The small boys were very much in evidence, and the Liverpool players were compelled to stand a fusillade of sticks and stones, while no effort was made to stop them.

New manufacturing plants are sure to materialize on and about the property of the East End Land Improvement company. Attend the sale of lots on Tuesday, October 19.

Places of Players.

The official batting averages of the League ball players published today puts Mercer in twenty-fourth place and third among the pitchers with the following record: Games played, 42; times at bat, 135; runs, 22; hits, 45; average, .333; total bases, 157; sacrifice hits, 4; stolen bases, 7.

Dick Padden ranks ninety-sixth with 135 games; 515 times at bat; runs, 84; hits, 145; percentage, .281; total bases, 86; sacrifice hits, 20; stolen bases, 18.

Sale of lots commences in the East End on Tuesday, Oct. 19, at 9 a. m., and continues all day.

DR. SAUNDERS FUNERAL

The Remains Were Taken to Allegheny Today.

ORATION YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

The Provisions of the Will Were Carried Out—Good News at the Shops—Football Points—War in Tophet—All the News of Wellsville.

According to his desire as expressed in his will, the friends and family of Doctor Saunders yesterday proceeded to carry out out the program he had laid down. A special train brought from Cleveland a number of railroad officials and other friends of the deceased. In the afternoon John Thomas, of Cleveland, conducted the funeral services delivering an eloquent oration in which he rehearsed many incidents in connection with the life of the deceased and showed his noble qualities. The casket was covered with floral offerings. It was the wish of Doctor Saunders that an autopsy be held for the benefit of medical science and last night this was done by Doctor Noble, Doctor Hammond and Doctor McFarland. The remains were taken to Pittsburg this morning, in a special car. The cortege was met at the train, the body received and the doctor's last wish carried out as specified in his will. The estate will be settled by Mrs. Saunders and William Saunders without an account to the courts.

Football News.

A picked eleven and the high school boys played football Saturday afternoon, the latter winning by 12-0. Haugh and Morris especially distinguished themselves in the game.

The Athletics have reorganized since the game with the Monarchs. Aughenbaugh was elected captain, and several applicants were accepted. It is said the new members will greatly strengthen the eleven.

The Usual Fine.

There was unusual excitement in Tophet Saturday evening. Sam Morley filled up with bad liquor, became very unruly at Joe Poe's residence on Wood street and ran all the women out. They yelled fire, murder and police until Officer Cohagen appeared when Sam was placed under arrest. Mayor Jones interviewed Sam this morning and extended the usual courtesies.

Working Good Time.

The machine shops worked nine hours Saturday. When the order was issued it created surprise among the men on account of it being issued on a day that is always reckoned as being the short day. The boys are hard at work cleaning up for inspection since they expect the president through this week.

The brightest light of journalism was extinguished when Hon. Chas. A. Dana breathed his last.
 ENGLAND'S last action on the financial question does not show that its business men are friendly to silver.

AS ANOTHER evidence that there is money in the boy orator game, comes the story that William J. Bryan has given a snug sum to an Illinois college.

ALTHOUGH little has been said of the matter for some time, there is no doubt the people of East Liverpool are still thinking that the next postmaster should be chosen at the polls.

THE campaign is nearing its end, but the Democratic leaders do not seem to have advanced any considerable distance in the direction of victory. Mr. Chapman continues to talk a great deal of nonsense, and Allen O'Myers cannot resist the temptation to make himself ridiculous, while McLean is, as he always was, so far away from Ohio as to be little of a consideration.

THE Cuban war has stretched through so many months that the American people are almost accustomed to hearing the tales of brutality which constantly come from the island, but there are thousands who are hoping congress will not forget that it owes a duty to humanity, and that duty can best be performed by applying it in the cause of Cuba.

THE men who make their mark in congress seldom make much of a mark before they have served a good many years and worked with that faithfulness which demands recognition. McKinley was seven times a congressman before his name became known to the world, and Mr. Dingley, if he had been elected the day of his birth, has served long enough to attain his majority.

AN HONORABLE CAREER.
 While he still sits in the office of the secretary of state and his name is ap-pendended to all documents which go out from that department, there is no denying that John Sherman is little more than a member of the cabinet in name.
 He is an old man and his day of usefulness is over. Through many years has he worked faithfully and well, but time has set its hand upon him and his day has come. No longer is the great statesman able to cope with the questions which necessarily find their way to the secretary and for many months the work has been performed by more vigorous men. But his name should not be forgotten, for it deserves a place in history as that of a man whose greatness will ever be coupled with the foremost men of the century. His work is done, and while John Sherman may not appear so prominent in the future as a part of the administration, there are thousands who will ever remember and honor him.

The practice of people loafing on
 corners and spitting tobacco on the sidewalks last evening caused a serious accident.
 About 8 o'clock John Demmerling, a kilnhand at Knowles, was passing along
 Fifth street with a couple of companions.
 When they reached the Golding block
 Mr. Demmerling slipped and fell heavily
 to the ground. He endeavored to rise,
 but was unable to do so, and his friends
 assisted him to his feet when it was discovered he was seriously injured. A physician was sent for, and the patrol
 was summoned. An examination developed that he had broken his right leg
 directly above the ankle.
 He was taken to his home in Huston's
 addition, and the fracture was reduced
 by Doctor Norris.
 The accident was directly due to the fact that some persons had been ex-pectoring on the sidewalk which made the pavement very slippery. This is the first accident of the kind that ever happened in the city.

BROKE HIS RIGHT LEG

John Demmerling Fell on Fifth Street.

STEPPED IN TOBACCO SPIT

He Lost His Footing and the Injury Which Followed Will Keep Him in Bed for a Long Time—A Peculiar Accident Happened Last Night.

The practice of people loafing on
corners and spitting tobacco on the sidewalks last evening caused a serious accident.

About 8 o'clock John Demmerling, a kilt hand at Knowles, was passing along
Fifth street with a couple of companions.
When they reached the Golding block
Mr. Demmerling slipped and fell heavily
to the ground. He endeavored to rise,
but was unable to do so, and his friends
assisted him to his feet when it was discovered he was seriously injured. A
physician was sent for, and the patrol
was summoned. An examination developed that he had broken his right leg
directly above the ankle.

He was taken to his home in Huston's
addition, and the fracture was reduced
by Doctor Norris.

The accident was directly due to the
fact that some persons had been expecterating on the sidewalk which made the pavement very slippery. This is the first accident of the kind that ever happened in the city.

CHURCH WAS CROWDED

To Hear Father Kress Deliver
an Address.

GOOD MUSIC AT ST. ALOYSIUS

The First of a Series of Meetings Attracted a Great Many People, Who Listened Attentively to the Speaker, and Heard Several Questions Answered.

A large audience was in attendance at St. Aloysius church last night to hear Father Kress explain Catholicity.
Standing room was difficult to obtain,
and not all who went to the church were able to obtain admission. St. Aloysius choir rendered some beautiful music, and the solo of Mr. Ed McIntosh was a feature of the evening.

Father Kress was the principal speaker, and during the evening gave a short history of the Catholic church, and said that the church was the oldest Christian body on the face of the earth;
that the church was an historical one and founded by the apostles. Other matters of history were touched upon and proved interesting in many ways. The main talk of the evening was "The need of religion, its necessity and advantages."

The speaker made plain the point that no question that would provoke controversy could be touched upon. The speaker in part said: "The most important subject of the mind is that of religion. Our reason tells us there is a supreme being, and we know this being as God. Man needs the love of God more than any other love there is. There are many things in our lives we can ignore, but the love of God we must not. Who is there who does not believe in God? Voltaire, the greatest living infidel of his day, cried when on his deathbed, I believe there is a God.
We all believe in Christ, and, to follow
the laws of God, is to have religion."

The question box was opened, and questions wide in their scope were asked, and several of them were answered in detail. The subject this evening will be, "Can We Get Along Without the Bible?"

ALLISON WAS INJURED

In a Fight Which Aroused Second Street.

LONG ARRAY OF PLAIN DRUNKS

Faced Mayor Gilbert at the Hearing This Morning and Paid for the Sport of Saturday Night—Patrol Wagon Was Busy for Hours.

Many arrests were made Saturday night. At midnight the patrol made three runs without taking the horses out of the harness. The first run was made Saturday at 4:30 o'clock to Jethro street. Officer Jennings had Mike Strain who was so drunk he hardly knew his name. At the hearing this morning he was fined. An alarm from box 23, sent by Officer Earl, caused Jim Sharp to be taken to the coop. Jim has been in many times, and promised to be good when last released, but Saturday evening he drank too much disturbance and had trouble with his mother. He got 120 days at the works.

As the wagon was entering the station a telephone message was sent from a restaurant in Second street. The rumble of the wagon scared one of the principals of a fight away, but Hobbs Allison had bad cuts in his head and face, and was left behind. Friends carried the injured man up stairs, and Officer Terrence summoned Doctor Taylor. Several stitches were put in his scalp and face, and within an hour he was out of danger. Officers Whan and Terrence scanned the neighborhood for his assailant, but without avail. Today Charley McCleary was arrested and fined $7.60.

The wagon was just turning around at the station when box 224 sounded. Officer Woods captured John Allison near the Dresden pottery, and he was taken down. Later a charge of disorderly conduct was lodged against him. He and about 20 other young fellows were acting disorderly in West Market street, but Allison was the only one caught.

Early yesterday morning Chief Johnson was walking along Second street when he saw a man drunk and sleeping on a porch near Washington street. He gave his name as Mr. Bealer, and was asked for $7.60 at the hearing.

As Officer Terrence was going to supper last night a resident near the Sebring pottery accosted him and asked that he arrest Tom McKeever, who was drunk and sleeping in the alley back of the pottery. This was done, and it cost Mr. McKeever $7.60 this morning.

Sidney Burroughs was charged by F. D. Mercer with overdriving a team of horses late Friday night. He was put in the coop yesterday, and made a plea this morning for liberty, alleging that a lot of cattle at home were starving, as no one was there to feed them. His case is being investigated.

J. R. Malone was charged with being drunk. He paid $7.60.

TALKED OF MISSIONS.

Doctor Marshall and Miss Rogers Delivered Addresses.

Doctor Thomas Marshall, field secretary of the foreign missionary society, delivered an excellent sermon at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning. He touched upon the Bible in the public schools, and said that "shall we have the Bible in the schools" was a question of the devil, for the Bible had always been in the schools.

In the evening Miss M. E. Rogers, of New York, spoke of home missions. She pointed out the need of religious light among the poor mountaineers of the south, and stated that in some parts of Utah the pistol was even now a necessary part of the missionary's equipment. The lady spoke at length, and was heard by an enormous congregation.

At Association Hall.

Dr. Marshall, of Chicago, made a wonderfully happy address at the Young Men's Christian association rooms yesterday afternoon, and every word was earnestly gathered in by the deeply interested hearers. Good was certainly accomplished, as the talk was afterward the subject of general conversation and commendation.

New manufacturing plants are sure to materialize on and about the property of the East End Land Improvement company. Attend the sale of lots on Tuesday, October 19.

ALLISON WAS INJURED

In a Fight Which Aroused
Second Street.

LONG ARRAY OF PLAIN DRUNKS

Faced Mayor Gilbert at the Hearing This Morning and Paid for the Sport of Saturday Night—Patrol Wagon Was Busy for Hours.

Many arrests were made Saturday night. At midnight the patrol made three runs without taking the horses
out of the harness.

The first run was made Saturday at 4:30 o'clock to Jethro street. Officer Jennings had Mike Strain who was so drunk he hardly knew his name. At the hearing this morning he was fined.

An alarm from box 23, sent by Officer Earl, caused Jim Sharp to be taken to the coop. Jim has been in many times, and promised to be good when last released, but Saturday evening he drank too much disturbance and had trouble with his mother. He got 120 days at the works.

As the wagon was entering the station
a telephone message was sent from a restaurant in Second street. The rumble of the wagon scared one of the principals of a fight away, but Hobbs Allison had bad cuts in his head and face, and was left behind. Friends carried the injured man up stairs, and Officer Terrence summoned Doctor Taylor. Several stitches were put in his scalp and face, and within an hour he was out of danger. Officers Whan and Terrence scanned the neighborhood for his assailant, but without avail. Today Charley McCleary was arrested and fined $7.60.

The wagon was just turning around at the station when box 224 sounded.
Officer Woods captured John Allison near the Dresden pottery, and he was taken down. Later a charge of disorderly conduct was lodged against him. He and about 20 other young fellows were acting disorderly in West Market street, but Allison was the only one caught.

Early yesterday morning Chief Johnson was walking along Second street
when he saw a man drunk and sleeping on a porch near Washington street. He gave his name as Mr. Bealer, and was asked for $7.60 at the hearing.

As Officer Terrence was going to supper last night a resident near the Sebring pottery accosted him and asked that he arrest Tom McKeever, who was drunk and sleeping in the alley back of the pottery. This was done, and it cost
Mr. McKeever $7.60 this morning.

Sidney Burroughs was charged by F. D. Mercer with overdriving a team of horses late Friday night. He was put in the coop yesterday, and made a plea this morning for liberty, alleging that a lot of cattle at home were starving, as no one was there to feed them.
His case is being investigated.

J. R. Malone was charged with being drunk. He paid $7.60.

TALKED OF MISSIONS.

Doctor Marshall and Miss Rogers Delivered Addresses.

Doctor Thomas Marshall, field secretary of the foreign missionary society, delivered an excellent sermon at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning. He touched upon the Bible in the public schools, and said that "shall we have the Bible in the schools" was a question of the devil, for the Bible had always been in the schools.

In the evening Miss M. E. Rogers, of New York, spoke of home missions. She pointed out the need of religious light among the poor mountaineers of the south, and stated that in some parts of Utah the pistol was even now a necessary part of the missionary's equipment.
The lady spoke at length, and was heard by an enormous congregation.

At Association Hall.

Dr. Marshall, of Chicago, made a wonderfully happy address at the Young Men's Christian association rooms yesterday afternoon, and every word was earnestly gathered in by the deeply interested hearers. Good was certainly accomplished, as the talk was afterward the subject of general conversation and commendation.

New manufacturing plants are sure to materialize on and about the property of the East End Land Improvement company.
Attend the sale of lots on Tuesday, October 19.

Parties desiring suits or overcoats made to measure should not forget the date, Thursday next, the 21st inst., to visit

MET AT HIGH SPEED

The Noon Express Was Wrecked in Allegheny.

SEVERAL PERSONS WERE HURT

A Mistake in Orders Allowed a Freight to occupy the Track Usually Given the Passenger Train and They Came Together With a Crash.

Passengers on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh express had their lives placed in jeopardy by a serious headend collision that occurred near Meyran avenue, Allegheny, Saturday afternoon. The express was running at a high rate of speed, when it collided with a freight train. The crew on the engine of the latter train jumped, and escaped injury, but all the passengers on the express were badly shaken up, and the fireman, who jumped, was severely injured.

There was some misunderstanding in the train dispatcher's orders, and the freight train took the track over which the Cleveland express usually has the right of way. The freight had not proceeded far when the express was heard coming around the sharp curve in West park. The engineer and fireman tried to get out of the way. They started their engine back. It had just got to the switch under Meyran avenue bridge when the express crashed into it.

The fireman on the engine of the express train jumped when he saw that a collision was going to occur. He was thrown some distance before he landed on his head. His nose was crushed, and his right arm and one of his legs broken. The engineer, Harry Flayraven, stuck to his post in endeavoring to bring the train to a standstill. Ross Griffin, the injured fireman, was picked up and taken to the Allegheny General hospital, where his wounds were dressed. The physicians say he is suffering from internal injuries of a serious character, and that his condition is alarming. Griffin lives at Steubenville.

Mrs. Marion Dolby, a resident of Beaver, one of the passengers on the express, was thrown against the side of one of the cars, and suffered severe injuries. George W. Anderson, of Youngstown, also a passenger on the express, was cut about the head by flying glass. Brake-man Stevens' nose was scratched.

A number of Liverpool people were on the train.

PECULIAR LANGUAGE

Was Used by Holiness Ward in a Speech Last Evening.

Holiness George Ward and his handful of followers occupied the Diamond last evening. Ward made a characteristic speech, and proceeded to abuse everybody who believed in temperance, but did not vote that way.

He became excited and referred to church members as "white livered sepulcher" and said: "A Market street saloon keeper told me with his own ears that he had sent liquor to Wellsville, to a preacher's home, in a box."

Two Good Attractions.

Two good attractions have been booked for the Grand. "Madame Sans Gene" comes next Wednesday evening, and Eliza R. Spencer Friday and Saturday of this week.

Chas. E. Dowe, Mr. Spencer's advance agent, was here today making arrangements for the engagement. It was decided that the gentleman should appear here two nights instead of one as previously announced. Mr. Spencer has the same company as when he was here last season. "Romeo and Juliet" is the bill for Friday, and "Othello" will be given Saturday.

Sale of lots commences in the East End on Tuesday, Oct. 19, at 9 a. m., and continues all day.

Autumn Excursion to Pittsburg.

MET AT HIGH SPEED

The Noon Express Was Wrecked in Allegheny.

SEVERAL PERSONS WERE HURT

A Mistake in Orders Allowed a Freight to Occupy the Track Usually Given the Passenger Train and They Came Together with a Crash.

Passengers on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh express had their lives placed in jeopardy by a serious headend collision that occurred near Meyran avenue, Allegheny, Saturday afternoon. The express was running at a high rate of speed, when it collided with a freight train. The crew on the engine of the latter train jumped, and escaped injury, but all the passengers on the express were badly shaken up, and the fireman, who jumped, was severely injured.

There was some misunderstanding in the train dispatcher's orders, and the freight train took the track over which the Cleveland express usually has the right of way. The freight had not proceeded far when the express was heard coming around the sharp curve in West park. The engineer and fireman tried to get out of the way. They started their engine back. It had just got to the switch under Meyran avenue bridge when the express crashed into it.

The fireman on the engine of the express train jumped when he saw that a collision was going to occur. He was thrown some distance before he landed on his head. His nose was crushed, and his right arm and one of his legs broken. The engineer, Harry Flayravan, stuck to his post in endeavoring to bring the train to a standstill. Ross Griffin, the injured fireman, was picked up and taken to the Allegheny General hospital, where his wounds were dressed. The physicians say he is suffering from internal injuries of a serious character, and that his condition is alarming. Griffin lives at Steubenville.

Mrs. Marion Dolby, a resident of Beaver, one of the passengers on the express, was thrown against the side of one of the cars, and suffered severe injuries. George W. Anderson, of Youngstown, also a passenger on the express, was cut about the head by flying glass. Brake-man Stevens' nose was scratched. A number of Liverpool people were on the train.

PECULIAR LANGUAGE

Was Used by Holiness Ward in a Speech Last Evening.

Holiness George Ward and his handful of followers occupied the Diamond last evening. Ward made a characteristic speech, and proceeded to abuse everybody who believed in temperance, but did not vote that way.

He became excited and referred to church members as "white livered sepulcher" and said: "A Market street saloon keeper told me with his own ears that he had sent liquor to Wellsville, to a preacher's home, in a box."

Remember the sale of lots in the East End, Tuesday Oct. 19. The chance of your lifetime.

Two Good Attractions.

Two good attractions have been booked for the Grand. "Madame Sans Gene" comes next Wednesday evening, and Elihu R. Spencer Friday and Saturday of this week.

Chas. E. Dowe, Mr. Spencer's advance agent, was here today making arrangements for the engagement. It was decided that the gentleman should appear here two nights instead of one as previously announced. Mr. Spencer has the same company as when he was here last season. "Romeo and Juliet" is the bill for Friday, and "Othello" will be given Saturday.

Sale of lots commences in the East End on Tuesday, Oct. 19, at 9 a. m., and continues all day.

Autumn Excursion to Pittsburg.

Sunday, Oct. 24, one dollar round trip from Wellsville shop, Wellsville, East Liverpool and Smith's Ferry on special train leaving Wellsville shop 7 a. m., Wellsville 7:05; East Liverpool 7:15; Smith's Ferry 7:25 a. m., central time, to Pittsburg via Pennsylvania lines. The great "Iron City," complete in her autumn charm, offers varied attractions and recreations for the excursionist. See Phipp's conservatory teeming with gorgeous displays of choicest flowers.

The largest line of "piece goods" for selection of suits and overcoats to measure will be on exhibition Thursday next "all day," at
